AIAA at ISU - January Newsletter

NEW SEMESTER NEW US

Hello and welcome to the Spring 2023 semester! I hope you all had a great winter break. AIAA at ISU was hard at work over break to bring back a premier engineers networking society. AIAA is currently going through its first massive rebuilding phase post COVID-19, and AIAA at ISU is glad to announce the arrival of new partners, new positions, and extraordinary speakers coming to speak with AIAA members in the coming months. This newsletter details what will be happening in the coming weeks.

CLUBFEST

If you or someone you know is interested in joining, the organization will be at the Spring ClubFest on Wednesday, January 25 from 11:00 am to 4:00 pm at the Memorial Union. Our recruiters would be happy to answer any questions you may have. Brochures that detail the benefits of being an active member will also be available.

KICKOFF

Join us for the AIAA Spring Kickoff on Friday, January 27 at 5:00 pm! Anyone interested in learning about the opportunities that AIAA offers is strongly urged to attend. We will discuss topics like joining the AIAA student chapter, benefits of being an active member, and events the organization plans to hold in the coming weeks. Directly after the kickoff, the organization will be watching the movie Puss in Boots: The Last Wish. Snacks will be offered at the movie.

RESUME WORKSHOP

A resume is the first impression that potential employers get of you. In our resume workshop, our friends at Engineering Career Services have put together a presentation to discuss the importance of writing an effective resume, followed by a resume building workshop as well as a rapid resume and elevator pitch review. Don't miss out on this super cool, super awesome opportunity to learn more about the importance of effective written and oral communication. The resume workshop will be held on Monday, January 30 from 5:00pm to 6:00pm at Howe 0010. Take your career to new altitudes!

SPECIAL ELECTION

We are hiring! This is your chance to make a difference in the AIAA ISU student branch. Being an active AIAA member gives you a great opportunity to get exclusive industry speaker events and ISU AIAA-sponsored events and programs. But, by joining our organization's leadership, you get a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity to make key changes to elevate ISU AIAA to a whole new level. This is your chance to gain leadership experience working alongside advisors and other faculty and foster a community that strives to better each other.

Assistant chair and Board positions are available. Applications for open are due on January 30, with Special Elections on Friday, February 10, in Howe 0010 from 5:00 pm to 7:00 pm. So what are you waiting for? Head to our website for more info so you can take advantage of it!

A Message from the President

"AIAA is a wonderful opportunity for students interested in the field of aeronautics and astronautics. Students and professionals of disciplines that work or study in a field related to aerospace are welcome. As an active member, you would have access to speaker events, professional development seminars, and social events."
