THE MEMO

AIAA at ISU - March Newsletter

HEY THERE!

Hello and welcome to the third edition of AIAA Student Chapter at ISU's monthly memo! We're getting near the end of the semester, so stay strong! This edition will go over the major events that the organization has pulled off for this month. We hope that you will enjoy. If you or anyone you know has suggestions for future events, please email the leadership team at aiaa.exec@iastate.edu. We would be glad to hear and implement your ideas.

A RETURNING SPONSOR: COLLINS AEROSPACE

We would like to say welcome back to Collins Aerospace as our returning sponsor. Collins Aerospace, a Raytheon Technologies business, is a leader in technologically advanced and intelligent solutions for the global aerospace and defense industry. Collins Aerospace has the extensive capabilities, comprehensive portfolio and broad expertise to solve customers' toughest challenges and to meet the demands of a rapidly evolving global market. For more information, visit CollinsAerospace.com.

KICKING AND SCORING IN THE SOCCER EVENT

On March 24, the organization held a soccer event at Lied Recreational Center. Despite the event not being advertised as much as intended, there were many new faces at the event. The event was an overall success in bringing people from the community together to have some fun outside of the aerospace field. AIAA Student Chapter at ISU will continue to have future sporting events to encourage community building outside of academics. Thank you to everyone who attended!

MERCH PICKUP AND SALES

During the week of March 17, t-shirts and crewnecks were made available to pickup for those who purchased during the original sale a month back. Once again, we would like to thank everyone who bought a shirt or crewneck from the sale. Your support means everything to the organization. While these pickups happened, the merch sales continued throughout the week. AIAA Student Chapter at ISU is considering bringing back merchandise sales for special edition t-shirts and plans to send out a survey to gauge color preferences for the future. Once again, thank you for your support. Your contribution allows us to continue providing for the engineering community at ISU.

LOOKING INTO THE FUTURE

Keep a look out for further announcements as we are cooking up some spicy events for the near future! Here is a sneak peak of a few potential events planned for the next few months:

LOCKHEED MARTIN SPEAKER - 4/5

Want to learn more about the SR-72 Darkstar that was featured in Top Gun: Maverick? Join us as Lockheed Martin's Dennis Finley speaks about this and his career journey in this professional speaker event!

ALUMNI PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT WORKSHOP - 4/12

Join us for a presentation and a Q&A session about the aerospace industry with a panel of industry professionals!

REGION V STUDENT CONFERENCE - 4/21-4/22

Don't miss out on this opportunity to network with students, academic faculty, and industry professionals from all over the midwest region!

ADMITTED STUDENTS DAY - 4/7

Want to give back to ISU? Join us in welcoming newly admitted students to the ISU campus!

TRIVIA NIGHT - 4/17

How well do you know the fields of aeronautics and astronautics? Let's find out! Join your friends in this fun social event.

COLLINS AEROSPACE SPEAKER EVENT - TBD

Want some insight into how a spacesuit is designed? Join us as Collins Aerospace's Julie Strickland speaks about this and her career journey in this professional speaker event.

A Message from the President

"AIAA is a wonderful opportunity for students interested in the field of aeronautics and astronautics. Students and professionals of disciplines that work or study in a field related to aerospace are welcome. As an active member, you would have access to speaker events, professional development seminars, and social events. I hope you are interested in joining us for the semester!" - Jonathan M. Hein
